

How to submit documents via UH FileDrop

1. Go to the UH FileDrop website at hawaii.edu/filedrop/
2. Enter your Name and Email address in the red box on the right side then press continue

The screenshot shows the UH FileDrop website interface. On the left, under "UH Users", there is a green button labeled "UH Login Here". On the right, under "Non-UH Users", there is a form with the text: "If you do not have a UH Username, please provide your name and email address below:". Below this text are two input fields labeled "Name:" and "Email:", and a "Continue" button. A red oval highlights the "Name:" and "Email:" input fields and the "Continue" button.

3. After pressing continue, you will receive an email from UH FileDrop to Validate and send your document
 1. Click on the link to continue the process

If you did not intend to use the FileDrop service, someone may have attempted to use your email address as the apparent uploader of a file. You may wish to report this to UH staff.

4. You will be redirected to the UH FileDrop Service Website
 1. Your email address should appear at the top next to Sender:
 2. Enter the email address that you would like to send your document to next to Recipient:
 3. You may leave Require Authentication and Expiration Timer on the default options
 4. You may provide an optional message to be send with the document.
 5. Then press Proceed

Require Authentication ⓘ

If the recipient is a UH person, you may additionally require the recipient to login before retrieving the files.

Yes, require recipient to log in using the UH Login (recommended).

No login required (insecure download available to anyone).

Expiration Timer

Expire the upload and remove the files after this amount of time.

5 days ▾

Optional message

You may provide a message to be included in the email to the recipient. An explanation is especially useful if the recipient is not expecting the file, since good security habits would suggest they not click URLs or download files from unknown or unexpected sources.

5. The name of the person you are sending the document to will show up in the top right hand corner
 1. You can attach the files you would like to send and press Start Upload to send
